Emotional Concerns during Adolescence

Circular No. 113

Thursday, September 27 , 2018

Dear Parent,

At Salwan Public School, we provide students with knowledge, skills and values to help easy transition of young adolescent children into adulthood. It has been our constant endeavour to help our young learners to cope with the onset of changes they go through at puberty.

The school is organizing an interactive session for mothers and daughters of class 5 to address the ‘Emotional Concerns during Adolescence’ in the Auditorium, Block C at 8:30 a.m. to 9:30 a.m. on Saturday, 29 September 2018. The programme will include session by a renowned health professional from Fortis hospitals, essentially dealing with several aspects of health and emotional changes faced by growing girls.

Mothers of young girls are requested to attend the session for beneficial contribution in their daughter’s growing up years.

Regards

Team SPS
